KNOX NEWS

STAFF NEWS

We are sad to see the departure of Jane Reaves, from our staff, on May 6th. Jane has been the Pastoral Administrative Assistant at Knox since August 2005. Jane has been doing part-time studies at Tyndale over this past year, but has decided to switch to full-time studies beginning this summer. We are, however, very pleased that Jane (and John) will still continue worshipping at Knox. Please join us in praying for Jane, as she follows God's calling in her life.

We are pleased to announce that Patricia Veinott, who has been attending Knox for some time now, will be joining the Knox staff (replacing Jane) as the Pastoral Administrative Assistant beginning May 15. Please join us in warmly welcoming Patricia to our staff.

KNOX CHURCH GROUNDS CLEANUP

Volunteers are needed for assisting with cleaning up the Knox church grounds and flower beds on Saturday, May 10 from 9 am-noon. Even if you only have an hour to give, your help would be appreciated. We will meet rain or shine (if raining, we will be doing some cleaning inside the church). For more information, contact Cindy Kasten-Hayley (ckasten@rogers.com).

YOUTH DINNER AND FOOD BANK WRAPS UP 11TH SEASON

If you could smell something delicious cooking last Tuesday evening, it was our season finale BBQ. Community volunteers Pete, Pat, Amy and Ted flipped burgers, sausages and veggie dogs and made potato salad for the 67 guests who joined us on our last night of the program. We were also joined by the staff of Walrus magazine, who helped serve food and trundled dishes back and forth.

We'd especially like to thank our core group of regular volunteers from Knox who gave our program a friendly, familiar face to the many youth who came each Tuesday for food and friendship. You pitch in wherever you're needed, always cheerfully and with abundant love: Blessings to Adam, Baiba, Bowen, Brigitte, Catherine, Joanne, Marco, Peter, Sharon, John F. and John M., Neu-Wa and Pamela. Thank you also to our behind-the-scenes volunteers who faithfully shopped and schlepped food: Wendy and Gerry, Wayne and Helen, Garry, we could not have survived without you!

Please remember our regular guest/volunteers who came early each week to set up the food bank and dining area: We have been enriched by the chance to work alongside, and get to know, Chuck, Emily, Jacob, Pet Boy, Gomer, Jennifer, James, Gio and Marcus.

Finally, a big thank you—and hugs—to the Knox congregation for upholding us with your prayers, your financial donations and your gifts of food, cookies, socks, clothing, etc. We know that many of you gave regularly, gave sacrificially, and took great care in choosing your donations— your gifts are most appreciated. Week by week, our needs have been met. God is good!

Volunteers, please join us for a celebratory dinner on May 13 at 6:30 in the Winchester room. Come prepared to sit, eat, and enjoy being served for a change!

PRESBYTERIAN MISSION NEWS

TAIWAN

Our gifts to Presbyterians Sharing... support Murray Garvin who is teaching English at the Yu Shan Theological College in Taiwan. A new elective course in English Drama is helping students overcome what many find to be the biggest challenge: speaking. Murray reports that a few who had started the class with no ability or courage to speak, spoke confidently and clearly by the end.
